

Review of Federal and State Government policy development regarding the commercialisation of biotechnology

Client:

An academic with research interests in the commercialisation of biotechnology.

Research task:

To trace the development of Commonwealth and South Australian Government policies that impact on the commercialisation of science and technology over the last 20 years.

Carine Research located, reviewed and summarised over thirty Government policy documents, key reviews and intellectual property policies obtained from online and hard copy sources.